STUDYING AT PEMBROKE

Pembroke offers a wide range of undergraduate courses including many joint options:

LIFE AT PEMBROKE

At Pembroke we are able to offer all undergraduates accommodation in College for at least three years.

There are a wide range of financial support options for students of Pembroke and Oxford.

Farthings Café offers a range of breakfasts, snacks and sandwiches throughout the day.

In the first year all undergraduates eat dinner in the Hall, where lunch is also available.

Student-led clubs and societies exist across a range of arts, sports and other activities.

Students get advice from Pembroke alumni at our annual Careers Fest.

At Pembroke we have a lively JCR (Junior Common Room) community.

Student welfare is a top priority and we have a team of people in place to help.

History and English

All of Pembroke’s chefs are professionally trained and like to use local produce. We have themed nights and cater for special diets.

Kevin Dudley
Executive Chef

Pembroke gave me exemplary support, academic and personal, while I conducted and presented my research; indeed, a true home away from home!

Aniket De
History, Visiting Student

To some, Oxford can seem elitist or pompous – totally untrue of Pembroke: the loveliest people, among students and staff, you’ll ever meet.

Patrick Kenny
Arabic and Islamic Studies

The most inclusive College, we back our top players but there’s sport for all: from rounders to rugby and football to ultimate frisbee!

Joe Fowles
Economics and Management

Helping prospective students throughout the admissions cycle is rewarding work, and I enjoy getting to know new students before they start at Pembroke.

Emily Harrington
Admissions Officer

A place at Pembroke is a great opportunity and an experience like no other. We look for talented and passionate academic minds to join us each year.

Lynne Brindley
Master

Choosing law is choosing a subject that can take you anywhere. Choosing Pembroke is choosing a College that can help you get there.

Kat Howarth
Law

Study how the human brain supports language, memory, emotion, perception and personality – Psychology has never been more exciting!

Hannah Smithson
Fellow in Experimental Psychology

To read English where the authors of The Knight of the Burning Pestle, Religio Medici, The Hobbit, and Johnson’s Dictionary studied or taught. #ChoosePembroke

Will Badger
English

Come to Pembroke, if you love Physics! We have a vibrant community with fellows, graduates and undergraduates learning together.

Alfons Weber
Fellow in Physics

So friendly, welcoming & enthusiastic… that’s why I applied here (& why I chose to stay another 4 years for my DPhil?)

Katerina Johnson
Interdisciplinary Bioscience
