STUDYING AT PEMBROKE

Pembroke offers a wide range of undergraduate courses including many joint options:

www.pmb.ox.ac.uk/courses
At Pembroke we are able to offer all undergraduates accommodation in College for at least three years. Pembroke has a lively JCR (Junior Common Room) community.

Eating in Hall is a great way to meet people and Farthings Café offers a range of breakfasts, snacks and sandwiches throughout the day. The Bar is located in Chapel Quad. Students get advice from Pembroke alumni at our annual Careers Fest.
#ChoosePembroke, because we’re the only JCR to own our own Art Collection!
Claudia Zwar 2013, History and English

All of Pembroke’s chefs are professionally trained and like to use local produce. We have themed nights and cater for special diets.
Kevin Dudley
Executive Chef

Pembroke gave me exemplary support, academic and personal, while I conducted and presented my research; indeed, a true home away from home!
Anketa De 2014, History, Visiting Student

There is a dynamic Japanese studies community here. My own interests take an inter-disciplinary approach: literature and gender studies.
Linda Flores
Fellow in Japanese

A place at Pembroke is a great opportunity and an experience like no other. We look for talented and passionate academic minds to join us each year.
Lynne Brindley, Master

Choosing law is choosing a subject that can take you anywhere. Choosing Pembroke is choosing a College that can help you get there.
Kat Howarth 2013, Law

Read English where the authors of The Knight of the Burning Pestle, Religio Medici, The Hobbit, and Johnson’s Dictionary studied or taught. #ChoosePembroke
Will Badger 2011, English

Come to Pembroke, if you love Physics! We have a vibrant community with fellows, graduates and undergraduates learning together.
Alfons Weber
Fellow in Physics

#ChoosePembroke

The most inclusive College, we back our top players but there’s sport for all: from rounders to rugby and football to ultimate frisbee!
Joe Fowles 2013, Economics and Management

So friendly, welcoming & enthusiastic… that’s why I applied here (& why I chose to stay another 4 years for my DPhil!)
Katerina Johnson 2014, Interdisciplinary Bioscience

It’s lovely to help prospective students. Open Days are a great way to meet current students and hear about College. No two days are the same!
Jodene Khan
Admissions Officer

To some, Oxford can seem elitist or pompous – totally untrue of Pembroke: the loveliest people, among students and staff, you’ll ever meet.
Patrick Kenny 2014, Arabic and Islamic Studies

There is a dynamic Japanese studies community here. My own interests take an inter-disciplinary approach: literature and gender studies.
Linda Flores
Fellow in Japanese

A place at Pembroke is a great opportunity and an experience like no other. We look for talented and passionate academic minds to join us each year.
Lynne Brindley, Master

Choosing law is choosing a subject that can take you anywhere. Choosing Pembroke is choosing a College that can help you get there.
Kat Howarth 2013, Law

Read English where the authors of The Knight of the Burning Pestle, Religio Medici, The Hobbit, and Johnson’s Dictionary studied or taught. #ChoosePembroke
Will Badger 2011, English

Come to Pembroke, if you love Physics! We have a vibrant community with fellows, graduates and undergraduates learning together.
Alfons Weber
Fellow in Physics

#ChoosePembroke

The most inclusive College, we back our top players but there’s sport for all: from rounders to rugby and football to ultimate frisbee!
Joe Fowles 2013, Economics and Management

So friendly, welcoming & enthusiastic… that’s why I applied here (& why I chose to stay another 4 years for my DPhil!)
Katerina Johnson 2014, Interdisciplinary Bioscience

It’s lovely to help prospective students. Open Days are a great way to meet current students and hear about College. No two days are the same!
Jodene Khan
Admissions Officer

A place at Pembroke is a great opportunity and an experience like no other. We look for talented and passionate academic minds to join us each year.
Lynne Brindley, Master

Choosing law is choosing a subject that can take you anywhere. Choosing Pembroke is choosing a College that can help you get there.
Kat Howarth 2013, Law

Read English where the authors of The Knight of the Burning Pestle, Religio Medici, The Hobbit, and Johnson’s Dictionary studied or taught. #ChoosePembroke
Will Badger 2011, English

Come to Pembroke, if you love Physics! We have a vibrant community with fellows, graduates and undergraduates learning together.
Alfons Weber
Fellow in Physics

#ChoosePembroke

The most inclusive College, we back our top players but there’s sport for all: from rounders to rugby and football to ultimate frisbee!
Joe Fowles 2013, Economics and Management

So friendly, welcoming & enthusiastic… that’s why I applied here (& why I chose to stay another 4 years for my DPhil!)
Katerina Johnson 2014, Interdisciplinary Bioscience

It’s lovely to help prospective students. Open Days are a great way to meet current students and hear about College. No two days are the same!
Jodene Khan
Admissions Officer

A place at Pembroke is a great opportunity and an experience like no other. We look for talented and passionate academic minds to join us each year.
Lynne Brindley, Master

Choosing law is choosing a subject that can take you anywhere. Choosing Pembroke is choosing a College that can help you get there.
Kat Howarth 2013, Law

Read English where the authors of The Knight of the Burning Pestle, Religio Medici, The Hobbit, and Johnson’s Dictionary studied or taught. #ChoosePembroke
Will Badger 2011, English

Come to Pembroke, if you love Physics! We have a vibrant community with fellows, graduates and undergraduates learning together.
Alfons Weber
Fellow in Physics

#ChoosePembroke

The most inclusive College, we back our top players but there’s sport for all: from rounders to rugby and football to ultimate frisbee!
Joe Fowles 2013, Economics and Management

So friendly, welcoming & enthusiastic… that’s why I applied here (& why I chose to stay another 4 years for my DPhil!)
Katerina Johnson 2014, Interdisciplinary Bioscience

It’s lovely to help prospective students. Open Days are a great way to meet current students and hear about College. No two days are the same!
Jodene Khan
Admissions Officer

A place at Pembroke is a great opportunity and an experience like no other. We look for talented and passionate academic minds to join us each year.
Lynne Brindley, Master

Choosing law is choosing a subject that can take you anywhere. Choosing Pembroke is choosing a College that can help you get there.
Kat Howarth 2013, Law

Read English where the authors of The Knight of the Burning Pestle, Religio Medici, The Hobbit, and Johnson’s Dictionary studied or taught. #ChoosePembroke
Will Badger 2011, English

Come to Pembroke, if you love Physics! We have a vibrant community with fellows, graduates and undergraduates learning together.
Alfons Weber
Fellow in Physics

#ChoosePembroke
On our website: www.pmb.ox.ac.uk you can find a wealth of information about courses, the practicalities of studying at Pembroke and the inspirational research by our academics and students.

For more reasons to #ChoosePembroke, follow us on Twitter @PembrokeOxford

Visit our YouTube Channel: youtube.com/PembrokeCollege to watch videos of current students talking about their experiences at Pembroke

#ChoosePembroke for an amazing variety of music from the Chapel choir to open mic nights. Plus, we’re the only College that has an annual musical!

Dorothy Tang 2013, Music

Be an engineer. Shape the future. #mylifeatpembroke

Ingmar Pasner Fellow in Engineering

Pembroke has been the perfect environment for me to fulfill my academic potential while pursuing international and university rowing success. Anastasia Chitty 2012, Medicine

We have real treasures, ancient and modern, in our Rare Books Room, and are happy to help with finding your books or just finding your feet! Laura Cracknell Librarian

Theology and Religion is a diverse, exciting course at Oxford; and with two Fellows plus other tutors, Pembroke offers a rich and supportive environment for study. Justin Jones Fellow in Theology and Religion

Pembroke has a strong tradition in PPE, and great Tutors. College life is so diverse, I’ve relished the challenge of fitting it all in! Ben Nabarro 2013, PPE

Pembroke law has a strong historical legal tradition combined with innovative methods of teaching. Our annual Blackstone lecture allows students to meet those at the top of the legal profession Rebecca Williams Fellow in Law

We have real treasures, ancient and modern, in our Rare Books Room, and are happy to help with finding your books or just finding your feet! Laura Cracknell Librarian

#ChoosePembroke for an amazing variety of music from the Chapel choir to open mic nights. Plus, we’re the only College that has an annual musical!

Dorothy Tang 2013, Music

Be an engineer. Shape the future. #mylifeatpembroke

Ingmar Pasner Fellow in Engineering

Pembroke has been the perfect environment for me to fulfill my academic potential while pursuing international and university rowing success. Anastasia Chitty 2012, Medicine

We have real treasures, ancient and modern, in our Rare Books Room, and are happy to help with finding your books or just finding your feet! Laura Cracknell Librarian

Theology and Religion is a diverse, exciting course at Oxford; and with two Fellows plus other tutors, Pembroke offers a rich and supportive environment for study. Justin Jones Fellow in Theology and Religion

Pembroke has a strong tradition in PPE, and great Tutors. College life is so diverse, I’ve relished the challenge of fitting it all in! Ben Nabarro 2013, PPE

Pembroke law has a strong historical legal tradition combined with innovative methods of teaching. Our annual Blackstone lecture allows students to meet those at the top of the legal profession Rebecca Williams Fellow in Law

On our website: www.pmb.ox.ac.uk you can find a wealth of information about courses, the practicalities of studying at Pembroke and the inspirational research by our academics and students.