

In 2024, Pembroke College turns 400. To mark this auspicious anniversary, a new College History is being prepared at a retail price of £50. You are now invited to be an Early Subscriber, Supporter, or Sponsor to receive recognition in the publication and a range of other benefits.

Early Subscriber - £50

By purchasing your copy now, you will become an early subscriber and have your name listed with other Pembrokians in the back of the History itself. To do this, simply use the QR code right or visit www.pmb.ox.ac.uk/400th

Supporting the College's next 400 years

By becoming a Supporter or Sponsor of the publication, you can help to support the College's future. There are also benefits available for those that support the College in this way, as shown below. In order to do this tax efficiently in the United States, please print and complete this form and send with a check to:

Pembroke College Foundation, c/o Mr Neil Arnold, 62 Dauphin Drive, Williamsville, NY 14221

I would like to help the College thrive for another 400 years, and ask that the Trustees of the Pembroke College Foundation consider allocating the gift I have indicated below to benefit the College's endowment:

$690 Supporter - In thanks, your name will be included with those of other Supporters in the publication, and, in addition to your free copy, you will receive a beautiful A2 lithograph of the Pembroke. The Pembroke College Foundation is registered as a 501(c)3 charity under the Internal Revenue Code. Your gift is tax deductible to the fullest extent permitted by law.

$6900 Sponsor - In addition to having your name listed in the prestigious Sponsor pages, you will get a copy of the book, a personal tour of the College Archives for you and three guests, and two VIP tickets to the 400th Anniversary Gala in 2024. The Pembroke College Foundation is registered as a 501(c)3 charity under the Internal Revenue Code. Your gift is tax deductible to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Please note, due to currency exchange rates, these prices are only valid until 30th April 2022
