

PEMBROKE COLLEGE, OXFORD

College Lecturer (Career Development) in Private Law

Further Particulars

Subject	Private Law You must be able to teach the following papers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Contract Law</li><li>• Land Law</li></ul> An ability to conduct some revision in Trusts Law would be an advantage. Some details of the Contract, Land and Trusts Law Courses can be found here: https://www.law.ox.ac.uk/admissions/options. This is a part-time role.
College fellows	Prof Rebecca Williams, Prof Ariel Ezrachi, Prof Sandra Fredman
Period of appointment	I October 2024 for two years. College lectureships of this type are not intended as full-time posts and will often be most suitable for doctoral students in the final stages of their degree or early career academics holding other posts who are seeking additional teaching experience.
Duties	You will be involved in the teaching, academic administration and pastoral care of Pembroke's Law students. This will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Organising and delivering the teaching of Pembroke College undergraduates for four hours (unweighted) per week, during term time and averaged across the year, under the direction of Professors Williams and Ezrachi</li><li>• Setting and marking Collections (internal College exams) to a deadline in 2nd week of term.</li><li>• Writing end of term reports on the performance of your undergraduates using the web-based system (TMS).</li><li>• Liaising as required with other Fellows and Lecturers in the subject and relevant Joint Schools, as regards the teaching of your undergraduates and with other College staff about addressing any pastoral problems which may arise amongst your students.</li><li>• Participating in termly student review meetings and attending the Master's Academic Review for undergraduates in your subject.</li><li>• Participating in the annual undergraduate admissions exercise.</li><li>• Taking part in the College's open days and any other access activities in your subject area.</li><li>• Attending College events for undergraduates and graduates and entertaining the students in your subject as organised within that subject.</li></ul>

	You will also be required to be actively engaged in research and to participate in a career development plan with the support of the college.
Salary	The stipend will be in the range £10,162-£11,322 per annum, according to experience and qualifications. All salary and stipend figures are 2023-24 rates and are subject to annual uplift.
Other benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An entitlement to take two meals in college per week</li> <li>• Membership of USS pension scheme</li> <li>• A personal research and teaching allowance of £806.67</li> <li>• Use of a teaching room in Pembroke</li> <li>• Mentoring and personal development plan.</li> </ul>
Selection criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In possession of a doctorate degree in Law or in at least the second year of doctoral study.</li> <li>• Relevant teaching experience and ability to teach some or all of the papers listed above.</li> <li>• Willing and able to undertake the administrative and pastoral duties set out above.</li> </ul>
How to apply	Please submit an electronic copy of your CV and covering letter to the Academic HR Officer (academichr@pmb.ox.ac.uk) by the closing deadline 12 noon on Wednesday, 21 August 2024. Please send us the names and contact details of two referees who may be contacted if you are invited to interview. The interviews are currently planned to be held w/c 2 September 2024.
About Pembroke College	Pembroke College was founded in 1624 and occupies attractive buildings in central Oxford. Pembroke College is committed to maintaining a vibrant scholarly community combining excellence in teaching and internationally recognised research. The college has a warm and welcoming atmosphere and is home to a dynamic group of early career academics across the disciplines. The Master is The Rt Hon Sir Ernest Ryder, formerly Senior President of Tribunals and a Lord Justice of Appeal. The College has an undergraduate body of about 350, around 200 graduates, and 30 Visiting Students. The College admits between 5 and 7 undergraduates a year to read Law (Jurisprudence), including students on the Law with Law Studies in Europe course and 2nd BA students.
Right to work	Appointment to this post is dependent on the candidate demonstrating that they have the right to work in the UK. At all times your employment is subject to the provision of original documentation to establish your right to work and remain in the UK, which the College requires in order to comply with its duties under the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006. It will remain your responsibility to ensure that you are able to produce such documentation as and when requested from you. Candidates that require a visa to work in the United Kingdom are encouraged to check before applying to ensure that they are eligible for an appropriate visa using the information provided by the University of Oxford Staff Immigration Team at: https://staffimmigration.admin.ox.ac.uk/.