Yorks:

Dear Sir,

We are very much interested to hear that a window is to be erected in the ante-chapel of Pembroke College in memory of those members who fell in the War. We count it a privilege to contribute to the memorial fund. In honour of my brother I send you a cheque for five guineas. It is a joint gift from some of my brothers & sisters & myself.

Yours faithfully
A. T. Scott

Dear Sir,

Pembroke College
War Memorial.

On behalf of the relatives of the late Lieut.
Downes I beg to say we shall be pleased to contribute to the Memorial in the College he loved so well.

I shall be seeing the other members of the family at Easter, immediately after which

I hope to forward you a contribution. In the meantime I should esteem it a favour if you would let me know that his name will be recorded with the others beneath the stained glass window.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully
Richard Cartwright.

Dear Sir

I received this morning 2 notices about the Pembroke College War Memorial, one addressed to me, & the other to my late son, J. L. Derrick, former Scholar of Pembroke. He was killed on Aug. 27th 1917 & was then Capt. 6. Yorkes R.

He was at Pembroke 1908 - 1912.

I enclose 10/- as a Contribution to the Pembroke War Memorial.

Believe me

Dear Sir

Dear Mr. Wood.

I received Dr. Dudden's appeal on behalf of a Pembroke War Memorial last night, and now have much pleasure in enclosing a cheque for £25. as a contribution towards enabling the Master & Fellows to carry out whatever form of Memorial they may finally decide upon in a manner worthy of the College, as well as a graceful and lasting souvenir to the memory of those gallant sons of Pembroke through whose valour we, who were prevented by Anno Domini or other unavoidable cause from joining the fighting line, still live in safety in our Island Home, & now earnestly desire to record the deep affection with which we reverently cherish their names.

With kindest regards, & hoping that you are quite well, Believe me to remain

Yours very sincerely

Dear Mr Wood

I am glad to enclose you my cheque for Three guineas as a joint contribution to your College War Memorial Fund appeared from The Master, from Norman & myself in memory of our dear Charles.

As it asked for prompt response I have opened Norman, who is back again at his work at Queen's University, Kingston Ontario, Canada, which I am sending him by this post; and am sure he will be pleased to be spared the otherwise inevitable delay, owing to his distance from England, in replying to it.

Thank God, though he saw some sharp fighting he came through unscathed.

I am sure he will be pleased shortly to see the A opposite his name in the University Calendar; and I know he would wish to be kindly remembered to you, if he knew I was writing to you.

I should be so pleased if I may ask for one, if you have one to spare, if I may have a copy of the College Roll of Honour.

Yours sincerely

Jehuger L Symons.
